

CURBY® FRAGILE WRAP

RENEWABLE PAPER SOLUTION FOR FRAGILE PACKAGING PROVEN TO REDUCE DAMAGE

Curby® Fragile Wrap is an innovative, patent-pending honeycomb cushioning material that offers substantial benefits over traditional wrapping materials, including bubble, bubble-on-demand, foam, and other paper materials.

It provides significant return on investment for end users, including damage reductions, pack time efficiencies, and less packaging materials to process an order. There is potential to use smaller box sizes to net cube savings. Curby Fragile Wrap is space saving, sustainable, and results in increased customer satisfaction and retention.
